Step into a world of timeless elegance and colonial allure. Sangath is a luxurious 3BHK apartment with a coherent colonial charm. With this exquisite touch to details, it is located in the prestigious neighbourhood of Powai, Mumbai.

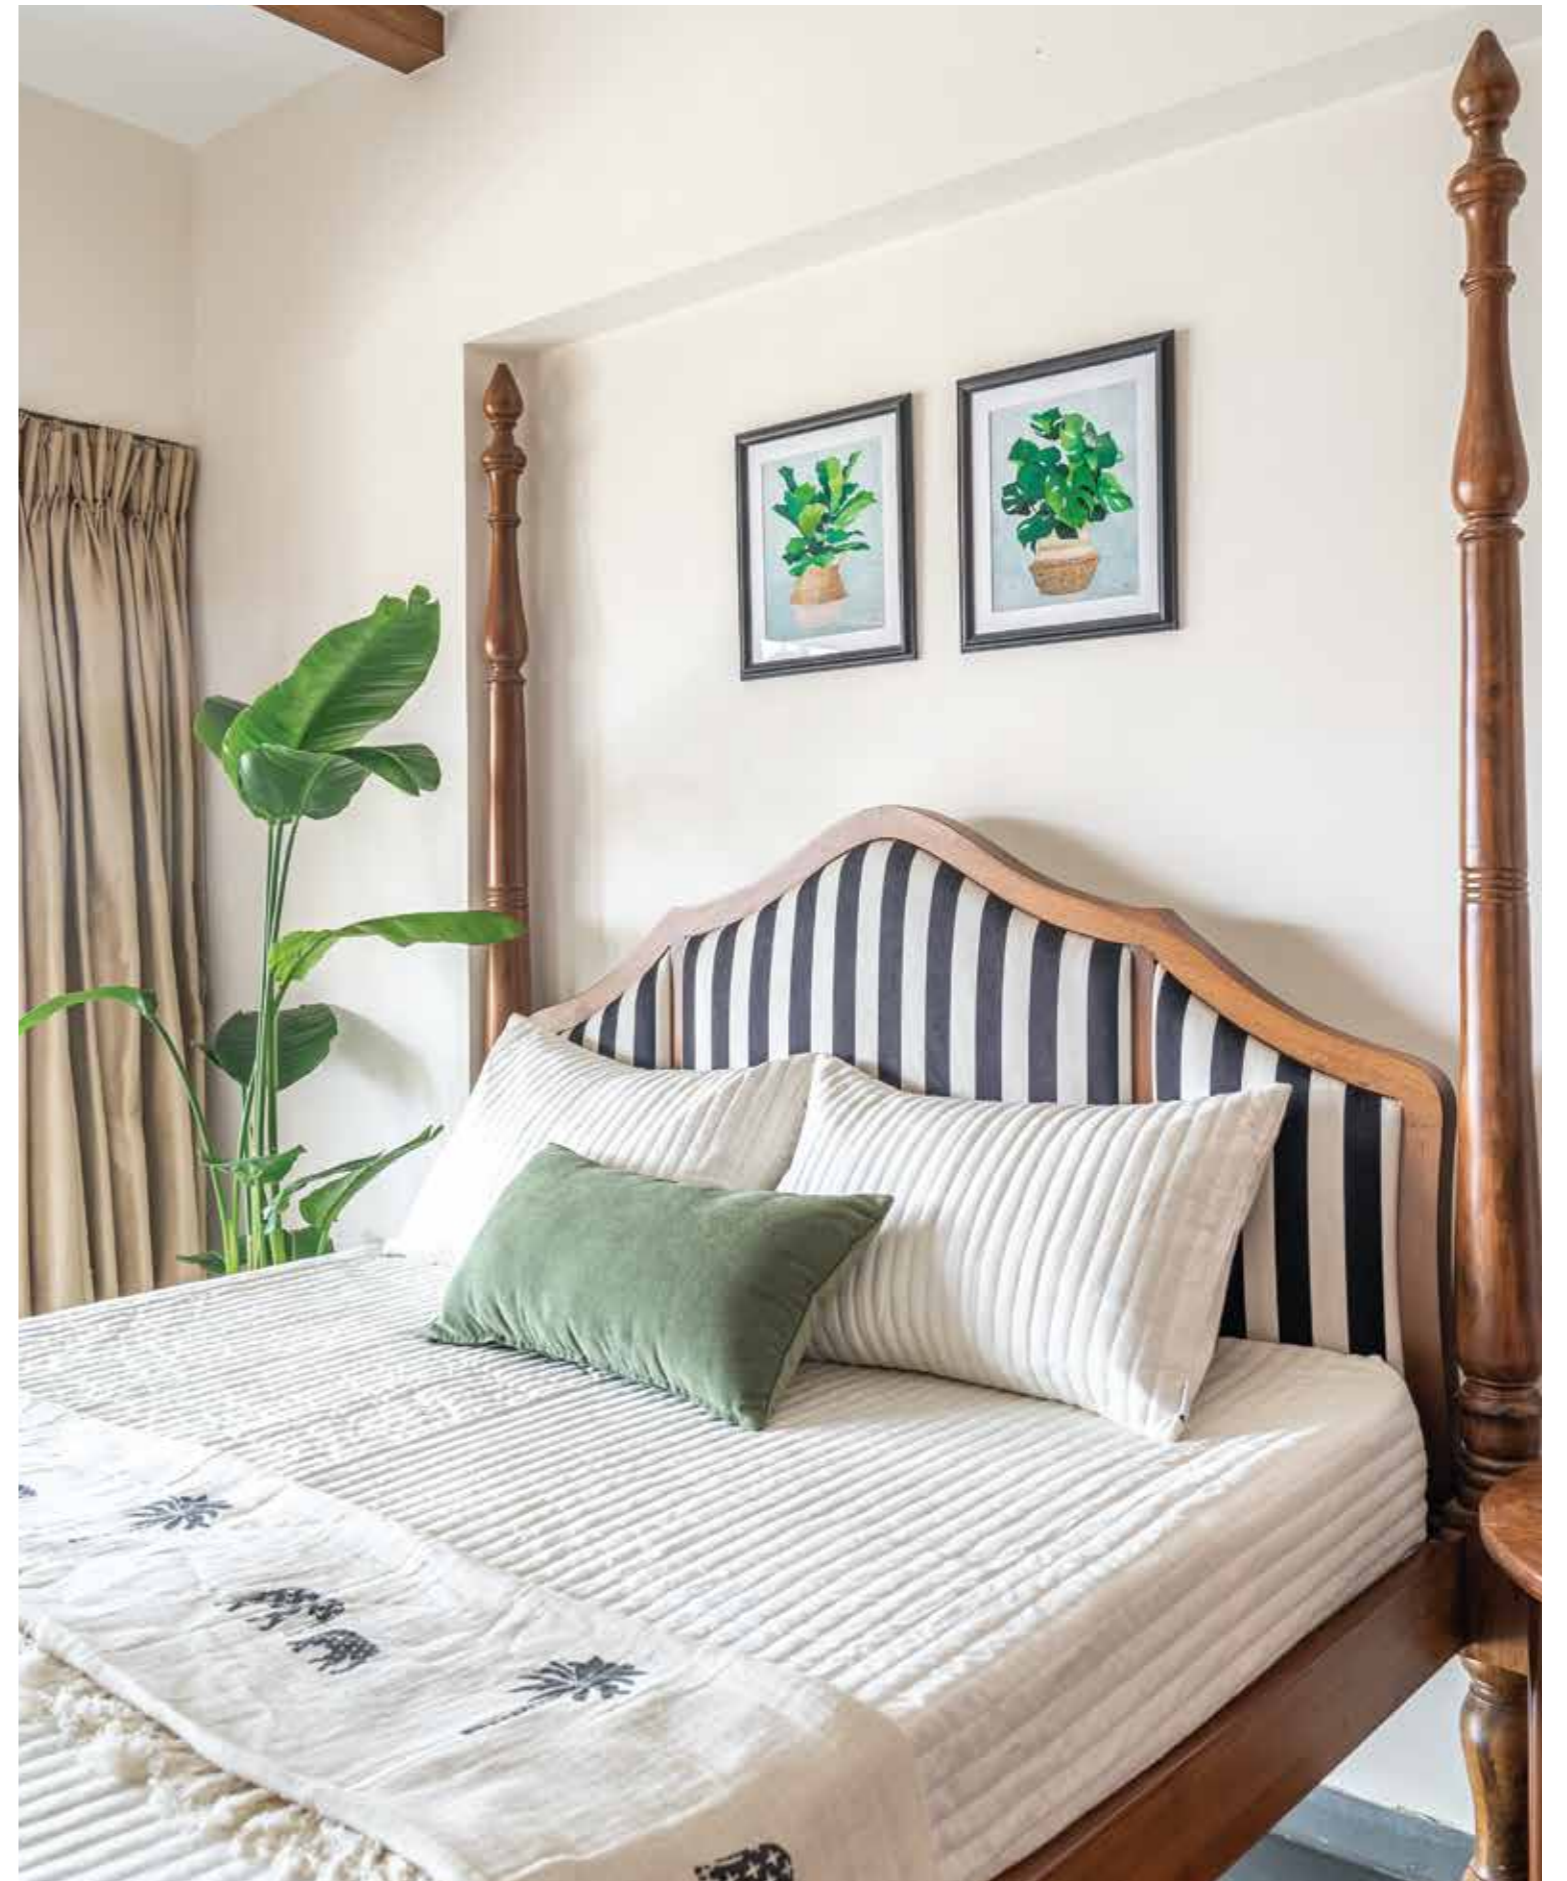

'Sangath' briefly translates to association, which in this dwelling is an artful connection of Scandinavian charm, Portuguese elegance, and a sprinkle of ethnic lifestyle. There is a constant essence of vintage materials and patterns, ornamented tiling, and bright colours that fill the spaces with joy. Potted inserts are a delight to look at, and the long quaint balcony is the icing on the cake.

The spacious living room welcomes with a rich wooden panel ceiling, complemented by elegant sliding folding windows that floods the space with natural light, along with a cosy window sitting area. A connected dining area with a large arched mirror and an eye-catching chandelier is perfect for hosting intimate gatherings.

The master bedroom is a sanctuary of relaxation and refined taste, where the poster bed takes centre stage, exuding elegance and luxury. The room also features a study table, providing a dedicated space for work. The guest bedroom's bed's headboard is the focal point with its unique and captivating design, where the design effortlessly harmonises with the overall colonial theme, keeping it visually stunning and functional.

Wherein the Children's bedroom's walls are adorned with a charming tree and animal motif, thoughtfully designed bunk bed and a study space to provide a cosy and inviting atmosphere, perfect for imaginative play and restful night.
